Subject: Do not limit incoming administration

I voted for you and am a committed lets fix it conservative. This maneuvering stinks though. It is leaving a bad taste that Republicans can not play by the rules and are trying to change them at the last moment. If things were so bad they should have been changed 6 years ago when Walker was in control.

I may have to vote Democrat because I can not explain dirty politics to my democratic friends and family. The rules were good enough all this time they can remain.

Thanks,
