Shame on you, shame on the once proud Republican Party of Wisconsin. To think you and the party would work to prevent the incoming Governor from being able to pursue his agenda. The agenda that he was elected on, whether I agree with it or not, was supported by the people of Wisconsin in the election.

The Republican Party that I once was proud of has become a national embarrassment in its blatant vulgar attempts to thwart the will of the people, to tell the voters that they don't matter.

Welcome to the Banana Republic of Wisconsin. The will of the people be damned.
